

Before The Dawn

Zardonic

Alone I pray for something I know will surely come
Is this the dark before the dawn?
I hear a voice that's calling, says not to be afraid
Fears that surround me fade away

(Before the dawn)

Alone I wait for something I hoped would never come
A bed of needles I lay on
I hear a voice that's calling but I don't know where from
Will I still hear it when I'm gone?

Alone I pray for something I know will surely come
Is this the dark before the dawn?
I hear a voice that's calling, says not to be afraid
Fears that surround me fade away

Alone I pray for something I know will surely come
Is this the dark before the dawn?
I hear a voice that's calling, says not to be afraid
Fears that surround me fade away

(Before the dawn)

Alone I wait for something I hoped would never come
A bed of needles I lay on
I hear a voice that's calling but I don't know where from
Will I still hear it when I'm gone?

Alone I pray for something I know will surely come
Is this the dark before the dawn?
I hear a voice that's calling, says not to be afraid
Fears that surround me fade away
