

Born Ready

Zayde Wolf

I don't believe in no devil
'Cause I done raised this hell
I've been the last one standing
When all the giants fell

I won't shiver
I won't shake
I'm made of stone
I don't break

Start me up
Open my eyes
Turn me loose and you'll see why
I was born, born ready
I was born, born ready
Staring at the pressure now
I won't quit, not backing down
I was born, born ready
I was born, born ready

I am the unknown fighter
A dark horse coming for you
I'm gonna push up higher
I'm gonna do what I do

I won't shiver
I won't shake
I'm made of stone
I don't break

Start me up
Open my eyes
Turn me loose and you'll see why
I was born, born ready
I was born, born ready
Staring at the pressure now
I won't quit, not backing down
I was born, born ready
I was born, born ready

Keep pushing up higher
Keep pushing up
Keep pushing up higher, higher
Keep pushing up

Keep pushing up higher, higher
Keep pushing up

Start me up
Open my eyes
Turn me loose and you'll see why
I was born, born ready
I was born, born ready
I won't quit, not backing down
I was born, born ready
I was born, born ready

Keep pushing up higher, higher
Keep pushing up
Keep pushing up higher, higher
Keep pushing up

Start me up
Open my eyes
Turn me loose and you'll see why
I was born, born ready
I was born, born ready
