

The Reason

Zayde Wolf

I've been here before
I know the lies
I've been here before
I've seen the sky fall
The sky fall on me

The waves are coming up
They paralyze
The fear is breaking in it's no surprise no
But it tries though

This is the reason
We rise
We rise
This is the reason
We rise
We rise
This is the reason
We rise
This is the reason
We rise
We rise
No turning back

Where do we go from here
Look in my eyes
There's a spark that we don't need to hide no
Don't hide it no oh

Yeah bullets in a gun
We pay the price
We must overcome
It's time to rise up
Rise up

This is the reason
We rise
We rise
This is the reason
We rise
We rise
This is the reason
We rise
This is the reason
We rise
We rise
No turning back

Hypocrites
Try to get up on me
Demons come
They all try to haunt me
Try to hide
But I think they saw me

But I ain't giving up no no

My real friends
They all know the flawed me
I hate to text
Hit me can you call me
Here I go
New day upon me

This is the reason
We rise
We rise
This is the reason
We rise
We rise
This is the reason
We rise
This is the reason
We rise
We rise
No turning back
