

The Time

Zayn

Yesterday just came and went
And if today I wake up late, I won't forgive myself
'Cause time's running its own game
And I've rolled the dice too many times in my head

Never fell for the fame thing
They fell in love with the same thing
Let me know when the rain ends
See all I need is you

Ain't it special?
Ain't it precious?
The time that we have
When I'm laid in your bed and you tell me you love me
Ooh oh

Colors back in all my days
Build the structure let it break
As long as it's good for your brain
Lessons learned is what I've gained
Feeding families forget the fame
I'm doing it now for a second name

Never fell for the fame thing
They fell in love with the same thing
Let me know when the rain ends
See, all I need is you

Ain't it special?
Ain't it precious?
The time that we have
When I'm laid in your bed and you tell me you love me
Ooh oh

And I could cry when you tell me that you love me
When you're doing things you shouldn't be
And I lie for you
And I could cry when you tell me that you love me
And I'd die for you
If you asked me to

Ain't it special?
Ain't it precious?
The time that we have
When I'm laid in your bed and you tell me you love me
Ooh oh

Ooh (Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh)

And when you tell me you love me
When you tell me you love me
When you tell me you love me
When you tell me you love me
