All these hoes recruiting me, you know it's hard to stay committed
I can't fuck with shorty if we both live in the same city
I know she classy, and she boujie, and she sassy, and saditty
When I walk inside the bank I get to boppin like I'm Diddy
Walk instead the club I get to throwing racks like it's a frisbee
All this money counts the same
I don't care if its hundreds or fifties

When I step I be leaving sauce dripping on the pavement
Even the refe see I doing foul still don't say shit
All the old heads be hating on the double o baby
I can't help it that I made it I can't help it that I'm paid
All I did was stay on my grind and wait my time and elevate
I just pulled up stars was in the ceiling flew from outta space
I got lots of cake that's no debating I get it either way
If I feel a nigga threat then imma get him out the way
Glock said it won't switch but it changed up
I give her dope dick turn her to a baser
You can keep your top bitch I just want the facial

They hate I run it up quick they act like we was racing
Relations no, I don't want relations at all
Rather just paychecks cause I don't have the patience for love
Still stand on ten, I don't care, I carry the weight of the world
I just wanna run it up and get away from the world
