

Clawing out

Zeal & Ardor

To not heed the call is cowardice

Justificatum malum factum (Justificatum malum factum)

Justificatum malum (Justificatum malum)

Malum factum

Rise to the flesh when the last drop dries

I spin a thread that you can't see

A web of thoughts best left unclean

Justificatum malum factum (Justificatum malum factum)

No need to fret about it

You'll lose your head without 'em

No need call aloud

We'll find our ends without

Justificatum malum factum (Justificatum malum factum)

Justificatum malum (Justificatum malum)

I spin a thread that you can't see

Of all the lies you dropped on me

Justificatum malum factum (Justificatum malum factum)

Justificatum mal- (Justificatum malum)

Justificatum malum fac-

Justificatum malum factum

Justificatum malum
