

Last Coat Of Paint

Zeal & Ardor

This is the last coat of paint
Ain't it better
Everything's wetter in the rain when you fit you with
The last coat of paint
Ain't it better
Everything's wetter in the rain

This is the last coat of paint
This is the last coat of paint

I know you never feared this day
A metal nigga fucking you up on a piss-take
Now how you gonna feel on the motherfucking day
When the motherfucking pigs take your baby away

I know you're gon' be glad in a minute
Fear factor came and I came from within it
And I'm gonna be sad in a minute
And I'm gonna be sad in a minute

This is the last coat of paint
Ain't it better
Everything's wetter in the rain

This is the last coat of paint
Ain't it better
Everything's wetter in the rain

I'm gonna feel bad for a minute
The big bag came with the cane from within him
You're gonna be sad for a minute
Never had another man talked to the lemon

A.C.A.B., let a brother daydream
Pigs in the street like pigs in heat
'Bout the police (fuck 'em)
About the police (fuck 'em)
About the police (fuck 'em)
About the police

This is the last coat of paint
Ain't it better
Everything's wetter in the rain when you're fucking with
The last coat of paint
Ain't it better
Everything's wetter in the rain

This is the last coat of paint
