

Run

Zeal & Ardor

Run
Flee
Coward

Run while you still can
Stay a living man
Fly at any cost
For the lives you lost
Run

Won't come alive just to mitigate
Some people gonna die what you wanna hear?
Sitting on a grave that's the way to go
Way too proud just to let it go

Where's your fucking god
When you're about to rot?
Where's your messiah
When times are dire?

Make haste
Just don't be late
Hesitate
That'll be your end
Look alive 'cause you're better live than dead
Don't you cry 'cause you're gon' hurt yourself

Where's your fucking god
When you're about to rot?
Run run run
Run run

Blood all over
Every single stone
Wipe them down in oil and
Watch them fucking burn
Run while you can
Make your own demands
It is fucking over
Get them while you...
Run run

Where's your fucking god
When you're about to rot?
Where's your messiah
When times are dire?

Where's your fucking god
When you're about to rot?
Where's your messiah
When times are dire?

Blood all over
Every single stone
Wipe them down in oil and
Watch the fuckers burn
Run while you can

Make your own demands
It is fucking over
Get them while you can
