

What Is A Killer Like You Gonna Do Here?

Zeal & Ardor

Have you ever killed a man before?
Did you see his begging eyes, did you feel the gore?
You're just like a tease you're getting it with ease, aren't you boy?
And you didn't even hesitate when the man dropped
When the kill comes
And the screams rage
Shake it off

Find the foe you hate the most and go
Further down the road and now you loathe
Fear is but a fleeting thought you have
Before the kill comes clean and the victim screams in the back

What is a killer like you trying to do here?

What is a killer like me gonna do here?
