

Sir Francis

Zed Yago

He was a man, so strong and powerful
Women are dreamind of a man like him
His ship was faster as the wind
No storm no thunder
Couldn't stop his placing of order

This love was deeper than the sea, fight for your queen
He's been fighting for his majesty

Each time them met in front of his queen
He got down on his knees
To kiss the royal king

This love was deeper than the sea, fight for your queen
He's been fighting for his majesty
This love was deeper than the sea, fight for your queen
He's been fighting for his majesty

She was standing on the cliffs in the morning dew
She saw the ship and than she knew
That he was the man, she always desired
In the heat of the nights

This love was deeper than the sea, fight for your queen
He got down on his knees
This love was deeper than the sea, fight for your queen
To kiss, to kiss the royal kign
This love was deeper than the sea, fight for your queen
He's been fighting for his majesty