

Ave Maria
Hold me in your arms tonight
Heal these open wounds
Will you still be there for me
When I fall?

Spin me till I'm entranced
This could be our last chance
Did I stray too far
To still deserve your warm embrace?
Ave Maria
Ave Maria
Cleanse me of my sins
Restore me from within
And I need you to know
I will love you so
Until the world explodes

Spin me till I'm entranced
This could be our last chance
Did I stray too far
To still deserve your warm embrace?
Ave Maria
Ave Maria
Cleanse me of my sins
Restore me from within
And I need you to know
I will love you so
Until the world explodes
