

Lucky

Zedd

In the morning
I catch myself squeezing my pillow tight
And it's pouring
As if the sky had feelings just like mine

Can't ignore it, yea
Even though it still hurts a lot
Would have been a lot worse if I stayed

I wanted to catch you
But you pulled me like a magnet
And this could of been simple
But you dragged me through the fire
I don't regret it
No baby I don't regret it
Because you taught me a lesson

Now I'm feeling so damn lucky
Lucky, lucky, lu-lu-lu-lu-lucky
Lucky, lucky, lu-lu-lu-
Lucky, lucky, lu-lu-lu-lu-lucky
Lucky, lu-lucky
Now I'm feeling so damn lucky

Now I'm driving
And everyone around me looks like you
In the silence
You're the only thing I would cut through

I don't, I don't get it
I need to forget it
Would of been a lot worse if I stayed

I wanted to catch you
But you pulled me like a magnet
And this could of been simple
But you dragged me through the fire
I don't regret it
No baby I don't regret it
Because you taught me a lesson

Now I'm feeling so damn lucky
Lucky, lucky, lu-lu-lu-lu-lucky
Lucky, lucky, lu-lu-lu-
Lucky, lucky, lu-lu-lu-lu-
Lucky, lu-lucky
Now I'm feeling so damn lucky
