

I kinda think that we should just have...
What makes this a bigger party? What do we wanna do next time?
And it's just like, that delays the other notes, and it's just like
Instrumental after that, we don't have all the different cycles
Now, let's think back
What made this party such a good one?
What do we want to do next time?
Would you like to come to a party at my house?
Yeah, do you like that?
Where does that put us? Like, is it maybe...
Yeah, I guess it's about right
And when you're invited to a party
Practice the skills of a good guest
Be on time, ready for fun
Take part in the party
Help everyone around you to have a good time

I don't wanna go to parties anymore
I like to be alone
The night won't knockin' on my door
I pretend I'm not at home
Since you left me, I've just kept it away
I found it hard to sleep at night
Now I know just what it's like to get hurt
Only you can do it right
I want only you, baby
No one else will do
I want only you, baby
Only you can see me through

And now, folks, it's time to say goodnight
We sincerely appreciate your patronage
And hope we've succeeded in bringing you
An enjoyable evening of entertainment
Please drive home carefully, and come back again soon
Goodnight
