

Tear Drops

Zeina

Teardrops right after I left you in the dark, da da da da

Droptop skirting, so fast I run the red light
You gon be left behind
Oh, if you playing both sides
My money up
My feelings down
Sorry you slipped my mind
I started wearing crosses on me when I realized
You wanted my blood after our goodbyes
Oh, after our goodbyes

You're hurting
And I'm heartless
You got fears you should never have told me
You're hurting
And I'm heartless
You pulled a move imma make you regret it

Don't panic
Your heart's broken
You see the changes
And now you want me
Can't have nothing
Keep crying
My feelings are frozen
And you still owe me

Nonstop flights to places you'll only see in my mind
That's what you get
For creeping up and pulling out your knife
How does it feel to be alone on the losing side
Working probono when you could've been living the life

Your hurting
And I'm heartless
You got fears you should never have told me
Your hurting
And I'm heartless
You pulled a move imma make you regret it

Don't panic
Your heart's broken
You see the changes
And now you want me
Can't have nothing
Keep crying
My feelings are frozen
And you still owe me
