

Whatever

Zeina

You know what you did
No matter what you say, I don't forget
V told me that you're crying 'bout regrets
Should've known better before I left
Something wasn't right
And you know that I've been done with playing nice
So I came right up to your door
Just so I could ask what I know

You lied to my face, I can hear it in your tone
Blame it on love, and you knew that it was wrong
Trying to make up 'cause you see that now I'm gone
Never going back to how we were before

Whatever
You feeling down on your side
Whatever
I ran it high last night
Whatever
I threw it up in the air
Said whatever
I'm living better
Whatever

Real shady, guess you can't read the room
You get stressed when you know I come through
Touchdown, took a flight to Peru
PH, five star, no, you can't see the view
I'm not trying to be polite, for what?
I pray for your new side, good luck
Best, everything you had with us, you switched up for a faded fuck

Whatever
You feeling down on your side
Whatever
I ran it high last night
Whatever
I threw it up in the air
Said whatever
I'm living better

Whatever
You feeling down on your side
Whatever
I ran it high last night
Whatever
I threw it up in the air
Said whatever
I'm living better

You lied to my face, I can hear it in your tone
Blame it on love, and you knew that it was wrong
Trying to make up 'cause you see that now I'm gone
Never going back to how we were before

You lied to me
Straight to my face, straight to my face, yeah, whatever

Whatever
I trusted you and you knew it
You turned on me just how you do
And I loved you
Whatever
You did me wrong
You lied, you lied
I loved you
You lied, you lied to me
Whatever
I should've known, I should've known, ah
You lied to me, lied to me
