

Relapse

Zeke

Just got back from fayetteville, i used to call it home. my back is broke, my head is hurt. i'm feeling so alone. yeah, man, just like the last time my brain is in a sling. man, just like the last time i need a f*ckin' sting. relapse. first it's down to caitlin's. she opens up the door. give her 50 dollars man. so i can finally score. than it's down to donny's. he's waiting there for me. shootin' up in the bathroom in my mopar super bee. alright now. relapse. hope another eighth will get me right
