

Lights Illusion

Zella Day

How can't I say that the light is only as long as a day
In the shadow of your face
I will never, never find my place
In the lights illusion I will stay
In the lights illusion I will stay
The eyes that know me
Have yet to show me that everything's okay
And the hands that hold me
Can't hold me at all if I'm drifting away
In the lights illusion I will stay
In the lights illusion I will stay

Set me free
Of the shadows cast over me
Let me be in the darkness I can't see
Hope for eternity
Hope for eternity
Hope for eternity

How can't I say that the light is only as long as a day
In the shadow of your face
I will never, never find my place
In the lights illusion I will stay
In the lights illusion I will stay
The eyes that know me
Have yet to show me that everything's okay
And the hands that hold me
Can't hold me at all if I'm drifting away
In the lights illusion I will stay
In the lights illusion I will stay

Set me free
Of the shadows cast over me
Let me be in the darkness I can't see
Hope for eternity
Hope for eternity
Hope for eternity
Hope for eternity
