

Take My Hand

Zero 7

There's a part of me out there with you far from my mind
The histories we never shared I've erased out of sight
And though every part of me wants to stay with you
I don't really know what I'm supposed to do
Because you, you're not gonna go my way

Ah if you don't wanna take my hand, yeah then I'll turn to stone
Ah should've known that you're better off alone yeah now I'm turning to stone

Gotta find a way back in from the mess I made
I'm drowning in a paper bag of my own mistakes
And now I can't find a way to get back to you
Find a little space where we sit just two and I know
Yeah I need you to go my holdway

Ah if you don't wanna take my hand, then I'll turn to stone
Ah if you don't want to hold this man, then I'll turn to stone
Ah should've known that you're better off alone yeah now I'm turning to stone
Ah I don't think you'd know my name, cause you turned me to stone again
To stone again, I'm stone again

Ah if you don't wanna hold my hand, yeah guess I'll turn into stone
Ah if you don't really understand, guess it's fine, it's fine, it's fine
Guess it's fine, it's fine, it's fine
It's fine, it's fine, it's fine
