

Adrenaline

Zero 9:36

All my life, I've drowned in adrenaline
Now my blood runs slow like a sedative
I wake up past noon and they settled in
Lord, please help me up
I don't wanna lay down
So help me get the fuck back up
I don't wanna lay down, down, down
Help me get myself back up
I don't wanna lay down

I feel the pain in my reflection, I, I
Wanna get away, so I just step inside, I
Feel more alone when I have extra eyes
Fucking staring at me

I wanna feel numb, give me Novocaine for everyone else
Sick of staying in the house, I need a home for myself
To be alone, I can tell, that you don't know how it felt
I had to let go of you just to get a hold of myself, because

All my life, I've drowned in adrenaline
Now my blood runs slow like a sedative
I wake up past noon and they settled in
Lord, please help me up
I don't wanna lay down
So help me get the fuck back up
I don't wanna lay down, down, down
Help me get myself back up
I don't wanna lay down

Deep underground
It's silent, safe, and sound
Our story now
Thrown away, it's been erased

It's all gone horribly wrong
It's like I'm frozen in place

Now it's coursing through my veins
And every day is the same
[?] heart's still bleeding
I still don't know
If my soul is worth saving

(All my life I've drowned in adrenaline)

All my life, I've drowned in adrenaline
Now my blood runs slow like a sedative
I wake up past noon and they settled in
Lord, please help me up
I don't wanna lay down
So help me get the fuck back up
I don't wanna lay down, down, down
Help me get myself back up
I don't wanna lay down
