Zero 9:36

We are one in the same
And I've been one to put the blame on me
Running far, without a chase
I never stay to feel the weight on me
I need to let my self breathe
I should've known that every time I come back
It would always bleed

So how do I
Stay so confident for you?
I won't lie
Awake all night to wait for you
Fueling fires
I'm losing miles
I won't be restrained on my own

And I can't control how the fuck this is gonna play out
As long as it doesn't end here I will never break down
And I can't control how the fuck this is gonna play out
As long as it doesn't end here I will never break down
Yeah!

Yeah!

I won't be here long
Hope you understand
Time I spent on us
Ruined all my chance
To be free
I need peace
I say we
Should cut it all off
Knee deep
In these streets
I need sleep
How'd I get so lost?

I don't wanna be too cautious
I'm anxious, feel a little be nautious
I'm looking all around at my fears in the mirror to myself I promised
I got this
Do whatever you want, you can't block it
Why the fuck is you talking, no problem
A couple shots at my body ain't doing shit, need a homi
No probably Involved
I got to be gone
Cause I can't see me getting better, then I'm obviously wrong
No way I can lose
Half my life I been in this noose
And I don't know where this is going, but it's destined to move
That's it

So how do I
Stay so confident for you?
I won't lie
Awake all night to wait for you
Fueling fires

I'm losing miles
I won't be restrained on my own

And I can't control how the fuck this is gonna play out
As long as it doesn't end here I will never break down
And I can't control how the fuck this is gonna play out
As long as it doesn't end here I will never break down
Yeah!

Yeah!
