

Breathing

Zero 9:36

Why don't I lay here
And apologize for breathing
I think you hear
When the truth and I am leaving
And my fear is as useless and misleading
To think you still give a fuck
Without me giving you a reason to stay
(Reason to stay...)

Why don't I just go
When there's no one else around me
How do you know
Or the words that I was shouting
When I went home
So you could be without me
Swear I really started doubting
There was any reason you would ever stay
(Reason to stay...)

Why don't I lay here
And apologize for breathing
I think you hear
When the truth and I am leaving
And my fear is as useless and misleading
To think you still give a fuck
Without me giving you a reason
Why don't I just go
When there's no one else around me
How do you know
Or the words that I was shouting
When I went home
So you could be without me
Swear I really started doubting
I could ever give a reason to stay...

So why don't I just go
And how do you know
When I went home
Swear I really started doubting
I could ever give a reason to stay!
