

One By One

Zero 9:36

Twenty years old, got a dream in me
Twenty-one, got a team that believes in me
4k days straight, never changed a goal
Or lay my soul on everything
I paved a road
And I took it on over
My whole life I've been sober
I felt like I never needed to show for
The drama, life of drama, myself, my closure
There's no one I don't need enhance for exposure
The goal: greatest of all time
I've waited my whole life
An argumentative that I've been givin' my soul twice
As much as you don't like, I won't fight
That's what's important
I'm forgetting to fight back, I like that
You've been waiting on me just to fold
Strong enough to break through any mold
Hate the stories that you told
You sound like you make it up right as you go
Am I fake enough to make it through my goals?
I was raised by ghosts, and my mom
And my stepfather
Less off of you on my shoes
See you guess for the bed on my
I'll shine you on any day
I'mma get commas, get through the pain
And reflect on my accomplishments
Y'all never wanna talk stats
Y'all never wanna talk reps
Wanna talk facts
Wanna talk respect where you go
For some people you don't even know
Ya'll wanna talk pain
Y'all never wanna talk game
I've been givin' that before, I'm gonna sing
Y'all wanna talk futures
Y'all never wanna talk to us
When we talk, it's guaranteed you're lookin' stupid
I've been movin' through the storm
Rainfall wouldn't rain any more
When it's gettin' thrown at me, I can't endure
Hear my hoodie givin' pause
And if it rains on me, undoubtedly
I'll blast back, so count on me
And that's why
