

The End / Undead

Zero 9:36

Just take a backseat like you lost the shotgun
Hopped up on rox, popping oxycontin
I'm not gonna fail, failure's not an option
My soul is lost, but it's not forgotten
Got lots of problems, too many heads are talking
And I ain't gonna stop 'til they drop the coffin
Look at me, you think that life's been good to me?
You judge and throw the book at me
The devil's got his motherfucking hooks in me

I push myself to the edge
Looking for the end, hoping this time I won't break
I push myself to the edge
Feel it in my chest, none of y'all can stand in my way

I push myself to the edge
Looking for the end, hoping this time I won't break
I push myself to the edge
Feel it in my chest, none of y'all can stand in my way
I push myself to the edge
Better come correct when you're standing up in my face
I push myself to the edge
Looking for the end, hoping this time I won't break

Got two voices in my head
One's a zero, one's undead
Trynna find a reason, it's hard through the static
The situation's getting a little fucking drastic
Chop these bitches up like I used to be an addict
Two shots to the dome, bitch, I'm fucking automatic
I got a trigger in my head and a mouth full of bullets
And I'll slaughter all you bitches just as soon as I pull it
Don't check me unless you wanna check out
We were born dead, so I guess we're Undead now

I push myself to the edge
Looking for the end, hoping this time I won't break
I push myself to the edge
Feel it in my chest, none of y'all can stand in my way

Here I go, moving in, coming in, violently
Losing my mind, fuck this, fuck everything
Stop trynna to test me, it's a liability
Nothing you can say, I wanna end this reality
Fed up with the bullshit, all I do is lie to me
What's it gonna be? Six shooter, that's who to please
Finger squeezing gently, don't try to stop me
Don't fucking look at me, I'm ending this deadly

I push myself to the edge
Looking for the end, hoping this time I won't break
I push myself to the edge
Feel it in my chest, none of y'all can stand in my way

I push myself to the edge
Looking for the end, hoping this time I won't break
I push myself to the edge

Feel it in my chest, none of y'all can stand in my way
I push myself to the edge
Better come correct, when you're standing up in my face
I push myself to the edge
Looking for the end, hoping this time I won't break

I don't need to pray, I cannot stress that, fuck getting set back
I ain't asking anybody if they wanna respect that
On god shoot a bullet, if you're wanting one sent back
Got no love, no fear and I even got less rap
For half of y'all, the rest of y'all can't see me we up now
Easy to stunt now, but you still need to duck down
Don't fuck with me, I swear to god if you won't fall
I'll push you off the edge, and that's your own fault

I push myself to the edge
Looking for the end, hoping this time I won't break
I push myself to the edge
Feel it in my chest, none of y'all can stand in my way
I push myself to the edge
Better come correct, when you're standing up in my face
I push myself to the edge
Looking for the end, hoping this time I won't break

Hoping this time I won't break
