

Watch Out

Zero 9:36

I'm a mufuckin' show off with my watch out
Take your shoes off when you walk in my house
Since birth they would tell me to watch my mouth

And I'm not lost, I'm just searching
2 bare hands, and bloody knuckles I would work with
For certain
Hang the curtains
Show 'em where the church is
Kneel to your god and then burn it
Uh uh uh uh
It's time to pick it up
A chrome patch on the jeans ain't never make you religious once
Keep them hands right where I can see 'em
Let's stick 'em up
I gave 'em everything, they tell me I ain't give enough
It's been a minute since they wished me luck
Everything I touch is like a brick of dust
Goes for the high
And all the ones that don't love me should've switched it up
I think it's time to get 'em mad if they ain't pissed enough
Once in a while
I can relax
I wish my pops never relapsed
Arena shows and talks at the garden with his favorite artists
But death made a man, so did I need that?

Watch out
I'm a mufuckin' show off with my watch out
Take your shoes off when you walk in my house
Since birth they would tell me to watch my mouth
I see they stressin'
Your whole crews crew turning into yes men
House 5 floors look what you just stepped in
I don't talk much, I just say it's blessings
Watch out
I'm a mufuckin' show off with my watch out

I don't show up to nobody function
I don't like the way you interrupted
I don't go nowhere, ain't out in public
You ain't on your last, you down to nothing
Right now you actually fronted
Actually fronting
I been on this shit before you knew what it was Just because you 20 deep don't mean your crew ain't a dub
You ain't stupid enough
My chain hang like Ludacris does
I use to look up to you dudes before I grew, but I'm up
It's truthfully done
Your handouts seem useless as fuck
It's been 10 years, you moving as a unit's a crutch
The illusion is done
A decade, plus two other months
You thought you'd get to where I'm at not being ruthless enough?

Watch out

I'm a mufuckin' show off with my watch out
Take your shoes off when you walk in my house
Since birth they would tell me to watch my mouth
I see they stressin'
Your whole crews crew turning into yes men
House 5 floors look what you just stepped in
I don't talk much, I just say its blessings
Watch out
I'm a mufuckin' show off with my watch out
Now who the fuck told y'all that I would cop out?
Bitch I didn't back then and I'm not now
