

When I Wake Up

Zero 9:36

I've been fighting these demons
Enough when I'm sleeping
Don't do this to me when I wake up
Lay down, can't get up and repeat it
I stare at the ceiling
I can't let you in if the door stays shut

I'm running out
Can't remember why I'm running now
I've been so on and off
Can't remember what I loved about staying up when nothing holds
me down
And I'm sick of this paralysis
That's how it gets
I'm bound to flip
Can't believe we never found our way out of this
And now I get it

I've been fighting these demons
Enough when I'm sleeping
Don't do this to me when I wake up
Lay down, can't get up and repeat it
I stare at the ceiling
I can't let you in if the door stays shut

I'm running out
Can't remember why I'm running now
I've been so on and off
Can't remember what I loved about staying up when nothing holds
me down
And I'm sick of this paralysis
That's how it gets
I'm bound to flip
Can't believe we never found our way out of this
And now I get it

I've been fighting these demons
Enough when I'm sleeping
Don't do this to me when I wake up
Lay down, can't get up and repeat it
I stare at the ceiling
I can't let you in if the door stays shut
