Zero 9:36

You had your finger on the trigger when I got back
Tried to take away my dreams right as it cocked back
Left my thoughts on top of the pavement where I walked at
A thin line from dying and reviving, but you crossed that I looked up to the barrel from a high place
Noticed my face in the reflection, this is my fate
I'm the one that built this, if it kills me, then I'm happy
I've blessed the ground I walk on
Bitches walk it and they hands bleed

Tell me, what would you die for?
When you're looking down the barrel of a gun
You let your loved ones cry for it
But you held your own when it's all said and done
Tell me, what would you die for?
When you're looking down the barrel of a gun
You let your loved ones cry for it
But you held your own when it's all said and done

Tell me, what would you die for?
You let your loved ones cry for it
But you held your own when it's all said and done

Underneath it all you'll find what really matters
I know that as soon as I'm gone, you're gonna feel me after
Until we shatter, but we have to keep our feet on ladders
Climbing to the top, I'm not too sure of what I'm even after
And as I walk through the smoke, I hope I never choke
I'll just keep cleaning up on these, oh, and they wanna get me
It's fuck whatever they tell me
Let me live, but if I don't
Then motherfucker, that's what it is, so please

Tell me, what would you die for?
When you're looking down the barrel of a gun
You let your loved ones cry for it
But you held your own when it's all said and done
Tell me, what would you die for?
When you're looking down the barrel of a gun
You let your loved ones cry for it
But you held your own when it's all said and done

I held my breath, so I will not be long
They're burning me up because I don't belong
(Tell me, what would you die for?)
I held my breath, so I will not be long
They're burning me up because I don't belong

Tell me, what would you die for?
You let your loved ones cry for it
But you held your own when it's all said and done
