All those people
What they don't know might kill 'em

They say I'm unhappy
Why can't I sleep at night
They say all I wanna do is laugh

All I wanna do is laugh
And I don't wanna hit the other kids in anger
Oh, but I do even when I don't want to

All I wanna do is clap
All I wanna do is sing
And I don't wanna sing another song in anger
Oh, but I do because I have to

Oh and it makes me think
About things I shouldn't be
Takes my breath like fire underwater

But if you've gotta run

Well, then you've gotta run
Save no tears for the morning, oh

All us people
What we don't say might kill us
All we say all I wanna do is laugh
All I wanna do is laugh
And I don't wanna hear another word in anger
Oh, but I do when you don't have to

When I sleep tonight
When will the morning come my way
What if it doesn't

Well, then you've gotta run
And when you've gotta run
Save no tears for the morning, oh

All us people
We've got fire within us
