

Changes

Zhané

I devoted all my love and all my time
More than anyone before
Now others tried to gain my love
But it made me love you even more
Now changes, changes

Changes
Why are you putting me through changes, baby
Changes
Your love has truly really really changed to pain
Yes

You say you wanna try
Because deep in your heart
And you know that I'm the one baby
You put your mind at ease
And give your heart tranquility
Now changes, changes

Changes
Why are you putting me through changes, baby
Changes
Your love has truly really really changed to pain
Yes

And you said that your feelings for me
Have truly changed
Since I'm in love I can not say the same
And this is why my heart cannot accept this change

Changes
And now I'm afraid to even fall in love again
Changes
And now I'm afraid to ever fall in love again

And you said that your feelings for me
Have truly changed
Since I'm in love I can not say the same
And this is why my heart cannot accept this change

Changes
And now I'm afraid to even fall in love again
Changes
And now I'm afraid to ever fall in love again

Could it be that you realized that
I'm not the one that you thought I'd be
Somebody tell me
Could it be that you realized that
I'm not the one that you thought I'd be
Oh baby, oh baby
Could it be that you realized that
I'm not the one that you thought I'd be
Could it be that you realized that
I'm not the one that you thought I'd be
