

Temporary Thing

Zhané

Lovers come and go
That's all I've had the chance to know

I want this to be more
Than just a sweet caress
More than just a gentle kiss
More than just a temporary thing

I want this to be
More than just a feeling
More than all our hearts can bring
More than just a temporary thing

Look at all these wasted years
That left me with nothing, nothing more than tears

I want this to be more
Than just a passing phase
My mind can easily erase
More than just a temporary thing

I want this to be more than sensuality
With no responsibility
More than just a temporary thing

I want this to be more
Than just a temporary thing
I want this to be more
Than just a perfect love affair
I want this to be more
Than just a secondary thing
I want this to be all that
I have wished for in a prayer

I want this to be more
Than just a sweet caress
More than just a gentle kiss
More than just a temporary thing

I want this to be more than sensuality
With no responsibility
More than just a temporary thing

More than just a temporary thing
