

Preach

Zhu

I'm not afraid of blood
I just walked out of love
With my heart in the dust
I'm afraid of us
When you stay
'Cause it scares me
When you hold me close the end is tragic
All the sacrifices all the madness
When you stay

Preach

Seen some friends come and go
See some hearts turn to stone
Seasons change it gets cold
Jealousy in their soul
See their eyes on the gold
What they lose for control
Like their owed
That how it goes

Preach

They wanna break us (preach)
They wanna take us (preach)
They wanna save us
They wanna make us (preach)

Please forgive them 'cause they don't know
It's human nature when they lose control
Better hide ya lies before you get expose
Best to live ya life and just let it go

Ooh lotta freaky bodies nothing new
Penthouse to the lobby to the coupe
That's how we do
That we move yea

I went from club to hotels to studios
I had so many late nights it wasn't me
They told me life is really just who you know
A different choice, friend or enemy
And I'm choosing my own will as usual
'Cause I know how much more they want from me
The reason I do this is true you know
'Cause the dance floor it gives me energy
