

Risk & Consequence

Zhu

Pulled
I

Pulled
I
Pulled

I pulled a trigger on my other life
I took a bullet for all my crimes
I know that every soul can't be saved
That's what the voices say

They keep on speaking to my dark side
They wanna take the peace from the night
I needa see the angels in my eyes
You know the choice is made

I pray
When my body breaks
When my body aches
When my body pains

I pray
That my spirit wakes
That my spirit waits
That my spirit stays

And even though it isn't my fault
I try to live a better life
Try to see the good inside
Then I push it to the side
To the side
I'm alive
I'm alive

Do you
Do you need a reason
Do you need a

I lost some friends
I've seen some trends
I took my chances
The devil dances
For all my brothers
I've made amends
I've made my plans
Until the end
Until the end
Until the end
Until the end
Until the end
