

Sky Is Crying

Zhu

Someday, someday
Someday, someday
Someday, someday
Someday, someday

The sky is crying (someday)
And laughing at the moon (someday)
The sky is crying (someday)
From always being blue (someday)
The sky is crying (someday)
She says her time is due (someday)
The sky is crying (someday)
Crying for the world she knew (someday)

She said
Love was something that she thought she could understand
But that was way before her heart was broken by a man
Oh she's crying
Ooh I see her dying
The clouds are coming in and as she cries into a river
Stars are shining bright only when you couldn't see her
Oh she's hiding
Inside you see she's trying

The sky is crying
And laughing at the moon
The sky is crying
From always being blue
The sky is crying
She says her time is due
The sky is crying
Crying for the world she knew
To be loved

Your love, your love is like a storm
Your love, she couldn't hold on to
Yea your love, your love is like a storm
Your love, she couldn't hold on to

The sky is crying
The sky is crying
The sky is crying
The sky is crying
The sky is crying (someday)
The sky is crying (someday)
The sky is crying (someday)
The sky is crying (someday)
The sky is crying
