

I once knew this girl she was broken, broken
Her daddy's never satisfied
Nobody ever got her open, open
She'd close the door and start to cry
But one day she met someone older, older
Someone who promised her new lives
But he just fucked with her emotions, motions'
Leave her trapped in webs of lives

She goes to bed and she can't sleep
Poppin' pills for her self esteem
Random fucks, but she's lonely

She never felt free
She was

SOCO [x20]

Couple' years have past now
She been living fast now
Pussy is the cash cow
She thought she could

But she don't fall asleep still
She still needs the pink pills
She don't want no cheap thrills
How can she live on

She was
