

Intentions (22)

Ziggy Alberts

You've got my ex-girl tattooed on your arm
You're 22 and you have hardly kept yourself away from harm
And hopping onto stage feels like absolutely nothing
From the mess in my head I was caught up in Listening to Norah Jones
Making out before another year with all these shows
And this time feels like we will be everywhere
Want you but also just want to try protect
And help you keep your head in check

My intentions were good for you
And my intentions were good for you
And there's nothing that I don't wanna do
My intentions were good for you

It feels like you are giving everything up
When I, I thought you were choosing me and I was choosing you
I don't want to talk anymore about my breakup
We loved and we tried and that says enough
I've been jumping time zones, in and out of time
By writing songs and playing shows
And this time feels like we will be everywhere
London to New York, Montreal in Quebec
Still trying to keep my head in check

My intentions were good for you
And my intentions were good for you
And there's nothing that I don't wanna do
My intentions were good for you

And people say I've changed, of course I have
I went from playing backyards to being backstage
From house shows to having half made it
But everything is still heartfelt
I'm still sleeping in my van so speak for yourself
Looking at the path I've chose right now I can't say no
I gotta go and this time feels like we will be everywhere
I've made my mistakes and felt my regrets
I'm doing good keeping my head in check

My intentions were good for you
My intentions were good for you
There's nothing that I don't want to do
And my intentions were good for you

My intentions were good for you
And my intentions were good for you
And there's nothing that I don't wanna do
My intentions were good for you