

I wonder why
We seem to be
More concerned with our flags
And nationalities
Oh then we are
With unity or love
More concerned with our differences
In different gods above
And out of all these books that I forgot
Drawn way too harsh in worries of what I'm not
And how this feels when it comes to
Comes to being close to you

And I will fight for this
Stand for right over wrong as
Our old trees are burning down
And I will write for this country I adore
And we can come together now
And I will stand beside you
Won't let hate reside here
Lock hands together in the crowd
And we will fight for this country we adore
In hard times each of us know how
Throw fear aside, regrowth can come along

And I wonder why
We seem to be
More concerned with selling water to private companies
Oh then we are
With the health of
The rivers where we're drinking from
The land that's free and young
And out of all that you are trying to stop
Free speech and thought protests against poor plots
Is how this feels when it comes to
That you are me and I am you

And I will fight for this
Stand for right over wrong as
Our old trees are burning down
And I will write for this country I adore
And we can come together now
And I will stand beside you
Won't let hate reside here
Lock hands together in the crowd
And we will fight for this country we adore
In hard times each of us know how
Throw fear aside, regrowth can come along
Come along

And I know where we belong
I know where, I
I know where we belong
I know where, I
I know where we belong
I know where (we belong together)
I know where we belong

I know where (we belong together)
I know where we belong
I know where (we belong together)
I know where we belong
I know where (we belong together)
I know where we belong
I know where (we belong together)
I know where we belong
I know where

And I will fight for this
Stand for right over wrong as
Our old trees are burning down
And I will write for this country I adore
And we can come together now
And I will stand beside you
Won't let hate reside here
Lock hands together in the crowd
And we will fight for this country we adore
In hard times each of us know how
Throw fear aside, regrowth can come along
Throw fear aside, regrowth can come along
Throw fear aside, regrowth can come along
