

Youngblood

Ziggy Alberts

An ochre love in the heart of all
An ochre love and the cold sea shores dear
'Cause my blood is yours for the night
'Cause my fears are only little things like these cold seas and broken strings

'Cause my blood is yours for the night
So, late nights and this warmth between your thighs
So, warm eyes and this warmth between your thighs, dear

Ooooooh love youngblood
Winter love so soft winter love so warm, youngblood, youngblood
Youngblood
Winter love so soft winter love so warm, youngblood

An ochre love in the heart of all
An ochre love and the cold sea shores dear
'Cause my blood is yours for the night
Because my fears they're only little things like these cold seas and broken strings
'Cause my blood is yours for the night
So late nights warm eyes and this warmth between your thighs
So late nights warm thighs and this warmth between your eyes dear

Ooooooh love youngblood,
Winter love so soft winter love so warm, youngblood, youngblood
Youngblood
Winter love so soft winter love so warm, youngblood

Say oh my love
Oh my love, love, love
I say oh my love
Oh my love, love, love
I say oh my love
Oh my love, love, love

Love, love, love
Love, love, love
Love, love, love

Love, love, love
Love, love, love
Love, love, love

Love, love, love
Love, love, love
Love, love, love

Winter love so soft winter love so warm, youngblood, youngblood, youngblood
Winter love so soft winter love so warm, youngblood, youngblood, youngblood
Winter love so soft winter love so warm, youngblood, youngblood, youngblood
Winter love so soft winter love so warm, youngblood

Say oh my love
Oh my love, love, love
I say oh my love
Oh my love, love, love

I say oh my love

I said love, love, love
Love, love, love
Love, love, love
