

In Your Arms

Zimmer90

Hey Jones, did you remember
When I was lying in your arms
And everything was alright?

And when I woke up every second felt like the one before
Lying on the icy floor
(In your arms, in your arms, in your arms)
(In my arms, in your arms, in your arms)
And when I woke up every second felt like the one before
Lying on the icy floor
Lying on the icy floor
(In my arms, in my arms, in my arms)

(In your arms, in your arms, in your arms)
(In my arms, in your arms, in your arms)
(In your arms, in your arms, in your arms)
(In your arms, in your arms, in your arms)

Take a look around, all the colors here melt into one
Take a look around, all the colors here melt into one
Take a look around, all the colors here melt into one
Take a look around, all the colors here melt into one

(In your arms, in your arms, in your arms)
(In my arms, in your arms, in your arms)
(In my arms, in your arms, in your arms)
(In my arms, in your arms, in your arms)
(In my arms, in your arms, in your arms)

And when I woke up every second felt like the one before
(In your arms, in your arms, in your arms)
Lying on the icy floor
(In my arms, in your arms, in your arms)
(In my arms, in your arms, in your arms)
And when I woke up every second felt like the one before
(In my arms, in your arms, in your arms)
Lying on the icy floor
(In my arms, in your arms, in your arms)
Lying on the icy floor
(In my arms, in your arms, in your arms)
