

Millions

Zimmer90

All by myself in the living room
Looking out for the blurry moon
And I feel
Feel it deep inside me

And I'm down
'Cause you put me there
Wish I didn't care
Didn't care that much

You called me last night
I told you a lie
I'm falling for you, and you're falling for me
For a million times

You called me last night
I told you a lie
I'm falling for you, and you're falling for me
For a million times

If you are lonely you gotta need
Somebody else as a company
Free yourself
Free yourself right now

And I'm down
'Cause you put me there
Wish I didn't care
Didn't care that much

You called me last night
I told you a lie
I'm falling for you, and you're falling for me
For a million times

You called me last night
I told you a lie
I'm falling for you, and you're falling for me
For a million times

Pull me closer, closer, closer
Pull me closer, closer, closer
Pull me closer tonight
Hold me closer, closer, closer
Hold me closer, closer, closer
Hold me close tonight

I called you last night
Because it felt right
I'm falling for me like I'm falling for you
In a million lives

I called you last night (I'm not gonna change nothing)
Because it felt right (I'm not gonna change nothing)
I'm falling for me like I'm falling for you
For a million time (I'm not gonna change nothing)
