15 minutes before
We're sitting next to each other
No, we're sitting across each other
Looking at the skin-colored screen
You know what I mean
Looking closely
Your eyes are blue

It's like the cinema
Being with her
It's like watching a movie
I keep doubting my eyes
Every single word you say
I'm focusing on every line
I'm curious about the next story

Skin-colored screen
You know what I mean
You ride a gray car
I'm in the passenger's seat

It's like the cinema
Being with her
It's like watching a movie

I keep doubting my eyes
Every single word you say
I'm focusing on every line
I'm curious about the next story

Umm she's blue
Green
Sometimes she's red
Red

You, in the cinemas
That picture is stuck in my head
Every single word you say
I'm focusing on every line
I'm curious about the next story

What scene will you be?
Some day, will our story be told by others?
Who will be the next lead?
What if I'm just a cameo?
Should I just sit in my seat?
