

Traitor

Zoe Wees

I could cut you off, no, I'm not doin' you a favor
Been around enough, so I know how to spot a traitor

How can I feel lonely
With everyone around me?
It might not be on purpose
Are you greedy 'cause I'm famous?
But you don't really know me
You think my life is easy
I knew you'd let me down when
I needed you to ground me

Gave you what you like
I let you inside
Gave you what was mine
Second glass of wine
Even when you cry
It's all on my dime
Oh, and I'm so tired
Oh, I can't keep this up, girl

I could cut you off, no, I'm not doin' you a favor
Been around enough, so I know how to spot a traitor
A traitor, baby girl's a traitor
I could feed you shit and you would lick it out my hand, girl
You would sell my story for a couple hundred dollars
Usin' every inch of me so you can have the cover
Stranger, stranger girl's a danger
I could feed you shit and you would lick out my-

Flip just like a switch
Turned out you were just like every other bitch
Getting lit, but you don't care about the cost
And the truth is you're so loyal 'til you're not
You look at me when they come running with the check (Ah)
I didn't work this hard to never get it back
And if you're thinkin' I'll be grievin' what we lost
You must be dumber than I thought

Gave you what you like
I let you inside
Gave you what was mine
Second glass of wine
Even when you cry
It's all on my dime
Oh, and I'm so tired
Oh, I can't keep this up, girl

I could cut you off, no, I'm not doin' you a favor
Been around enough, so I know how to spot a traitor
A traitor, baby girl's a traitor
I could feed you shit and you would lick it out my hand, girl
You would sell my story for a couple hundred dollars
Usin' every inch of me so you can have the cover
Stranger, stranger girl's a danger
I could feed you shit and you would lick out my- (Mm)
