

LADY

Zonke

You lost your lady
Because you thought that you had fallen in love
You lost your baby
Because you thought that she had fallen for you
You're out of your mind

So you made a mistake, you changed your mind
There was no give and take, like you and I
When you left that day remember what you said
There was nothing left
Now you cry

You lost your lady
Because you thought that you had fallen in love
You lost your baby
Because you thought that she had fallen for you
You're out of your mind

Now you beg for my time
I don't have none, boy you lost that right
I'm not gonna lie, this must be your lesson
Now I beg you to listen
'Cause things have changed, I'm not the girl you used to know
Found my way, so vaya (Bye bye)

You lost your lady (Things have changed, you had your day with a lady, you lost a lady)
Because you thought that you had fallen in love
You lost your baby (Things have changed, you had your day with
a lady, you lost a lady)
Because you thought that she had fallen for you

You lost your lady (Things have changed, you had your day with
a lady, you lost a lady)
You thought that you had fallen in love
You lost your baby (Things have changed, you had your day with
a lady, you lost a lady)
You thought that she had fallen for you
You're out of your mind
