

Nobody Knows (Part One)

Zoot Woman

Nobody knows we're falling
Show them what we've forgotten

Though we seem too lost to learn
You're the one I'm thinking of
All night and day
But is this where we want to be?

Nobody knows we're falling
Show them what we've forgotten

Ain't no sign of higher ground
Rolling in your heart so drowned
Inside you stay too scared in love
Can't open up and hope there's more

Nobody knows we're falling
Show them what we've forgotten

Looking at what used to be
So invisible to me
Where is the love?
Where is the love?

Nobody knows we're falling
Show them what we've forgotten
