

Save Me

Zornik

Life is just a game we play, but we never win or lose
It seems to me that there's always one team that tries to break the rules

And I will miss you
And I will miss you

You save me,
I save you,
You save me,
I save you

You'll have to bury your own past before it buries you

And I will miss you

You save me,
I save you
