

Walk

Zornik

Future goals, don't mean a thing
They don't mean a thing, unless you bring it on And every war, kills everyone
'cause we're all part of the monstrosity

The good and bad, keep turning 'round
Makes us faster than the speed of sound So cease the day of love and play make your move before you're swept away.

Joking in the gutter,
flirting with the sidewalk
You're drowning in the clutter, down down down
When you're only just a number, looking for a meaning Life is like a bitch, knocks you down

then you walk
then you walk
then you walk
You walk straight to your goal
now you walk
now you walk
now you walk
You walk free in your world

Bending words is what you do Create a world that only watches you
And I don't know, if this side is bad
The satisfaction's gonna give you the joy

Joking it in the gutter,
flirting with the sidewalk
You're drowning in the clutter, down down down
When you're only just a number, looking for a meaning
Life is like a bitch, knocks you down

then you walk
then you walk
then you walk
You walk straight to your goal

now you walk
now you walk
now you walk
You walk free in your world.
