

Time to Lose

ZSK

What's the matter?
How could you end likes this?
Why did you break the promise I used to believe in?
You fucking liar, This can't be true
Where is the source of fire now?
You are just 24 hours away
And I still feel the fire inside

What are we waiting for? There to no time to lose!
Are you trying to tell me
all this was just a part of your adolescence which is over now?
Today I saw you or was it someone else?
Now you define everything, everything we used to hate
We used to be like brothers
And we shared everything we had
What has come between us?
