I am sorry I meet you just wasting my time don't tell me what you think, don't give me that dumb hint I wonder if you could be normal ya you should be thinking not drinking, cause your brain is shrinkin' I would love to tell you how much you can fuck you every time I see you talking shit!
political parties whatever you are nazis your teeth and your effort I will break with my skateboard!

but actually I don't care what you do because I know my skateboard is way harder than you so hold a second and listen up cause we've got something to say
fuck you and your whole crew because united we gonna walk all o ver you!!

you sexists you racists you stoneheads you are brainless there is no use for talking you won't understand your stupid lies everything for what you fight is outright wrong and won't last long
