

Where Are You

ZSK

How many time did I prepare the words I wanted to say?
But all that ever happened was the tiny "Hey" how many nights did I spend waiting, for you to come around and then I woke up early and left without a sound
I would never find the right words, to express my thoughts wasting all my time trying to find those rhymes and maybe I am afraid to tell you what's on my mind still trying to fight the fear of getting left behind
So can't u see what's happening with me
I shouldn't care but still I'm here for you!
I just want to tell you that you mean so much to me
And it breaks my heart to know you don't feel the same way!

I really wish you would have told me that you don't care at all instead you left out here all alone waiting for your call and suddenly your picture pops up in my mind the stars they start to fade out, your smile makes me go blind
So can't u see what's happening with me
I shouldn't care but still I'm here for you!
And it breaks my heart to know you don't feel the same way!(... as I do)
