

Glory

Zucchero

Oh I got a song to sing
Deep in the night
I think I heard it in a sweetest dream

Yeah I got this song to sing
Yeah yeah
To the beat of my heart

Glory Sunday morning
Feel so alive
And I finally know just what it means
Stay the sun is warming
Yeah yeah
Shining down on my heart
Yeah, won't you sing along with me
And look around and we will see
The simple majesty

Yeah, yeah
Dawn to midnight
I gotta small glimpse of glory
And I'm walking in the light yeah

Oh I got a song to sing
Open my eyes
And I'm flying on an angels wing

Stay I got a song to sing
Yeah yeah
As the moon breaks the dark

Yeah yeah yeah
Oh and to the glory

Yeah yeah yeah
Gotta tell the story

Oh I got a song to sing
Deep in the night
Think I heard it in a sweetest dream
Hey I got this song to sing
Yeah yeah
Straight from my heart

Yeah, the echoes ringing through the hill
The satellites
With blinking lights
All come to a standstill
Yeah yeah
Dawn to midnight
There's a crack in the blackness
Like the thunder of the lightning strike

Yeah yeah yeah
Oh and to the glory

Yeah yeah yeah

Got to tell the story

Glory Sunday morning

Feel so alive

And I finally know just what it means

Stay a brand new morning

Yeah yeah

Shining down on my heart

Oh I got a song to sing

Living my life

And I'm grateful for the simple things

Hey I got this song to sing

Yeah yeah

To the beat of my heart

Yeah yeah

To the beat of my heart

Yeah
