You're so charming that you couldn't be any more charming
I want you
All night long and with the sky outside
A moment to drag you to my thoughts
A slow dream that drags you to this moment of yours

But I'm waiting for you
Celebrating while I'm waiting
And dancing the samba while I'm waiting Discovering how much I want
Every moment together, and the sky
Your smell
Is as charming as it could be
A slow desire
That drags me to the sky outside

But I'm waiting for you...

I'm waiting for you my baby
We'll meet
We'll make a lelelelelelele
Ah I'll take you to Ah come home with me
And when we get home
We'll make a lelelelelelele
