

Catchurfall

ZZ Ward

How can I sit back when I know just what you mean?
Please
Help me understand 'cause it's just so hard to breathe
This waters-a-rising making it hard to choose
We
Could be together, could be the perfect two I've been the the shoulder that you cry on I've been rock that helps you stay strong and now I'm caught in the storm
I can't deny I'm tried of flying the in the dark
One step in the light, could crush my high
So I'll always be here to Catchurfall
